SECRET.

RECORD COPY

EA 82-0063/11 25 February 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Office of General Counsel FROM: Chief, House Liaison, Legislative Liaison Division SUBJECT: Wilson-Terpil Proprietaries Question 1. Attached questions, with the exception of #3 have been circulated by the Public Affairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note, the questions stem from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) re "Wilson in Task Force 157". 2. Note that question 3 flows from questions 1 and 2. To my mind, we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call CC IG Staff (w/attachment) C/CCS (w/attachment) Attachment Attachment	•		•
1. Attached questions, with the exception of #3 have been circulated by the Public Affairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note, the questions stem from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) re "Wilson in Task Force 157". 2. Note that question 3 flows from questions 1 and 2. To my mind, we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call 25X1 25X1 Attachment Attachment	MEMORANDUM FOR:	Office of General Counsel	25X1
1. Attached questions, with the exception of #3 have been circulated by the Public Affairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note, the questions stem from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) re "Wilson in Task Force 157". 2. Note that question 3 flows from questions 1 and 2. To my mind, we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call 25X1 CCC IG Staff (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment	FROM:	Chief, House Liaison, Legislative Liaison Division
by the Public Affairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note, the questions stem from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) re "Wilson in Task Force 157". 2. Note that question 3 flows from questions 1 and 2. To my mind, we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call 25X1 25X1 Attachment Attachment	SUBJECT:	Wilson-Terpil Proprietaries Question
by the Public Affairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note, the questions stem from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) re "Wilson in Task Force 157". 2. Note that question 3 flows from questions 1 and 2. To my mind, we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call 25X1 25X1 Attachment Attachment	:
we would, I think, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flexibility to fashion an administrative vice a legislative remedy to this problemif, in fact, we feel there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreciate your fashioning a response to the question (#3)consistent with our evolving policy on the issue of Wilson-Terpil type mattersby Wednesday, 3 March. 3. Should you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to call 25X1 25X1 CC IG Staff (w/attachment) C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment Attachment	by the Public Af questions stem f Permanent Select	ffairs Division/OEXA, for response. As you will note from Admiral Inman's 3 February testimony before the	, the House
25X1 25X1 cc IG Staff (w/attachment) C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment 25X1 25X1	we would, I thin to fashion an ad in fact, we feel fashioning a res	nk, want to answer in the negative, leaving us the flow Iministrative vice a legislative remedy to this proble there is a problem to be remedied. I would appreci Exponse to the question (#3)consistent with our evol	exibility emif, ate your ving
cc IG Staff (w/attachment) C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment	3. Should	you wish to discuss the response, don't hesitate to
C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment 25X1			•
C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment 25X1
C/CCS (w/attachment) PAD (w/o attachment) Attachment 25X1
25X1	C/CCS (w/att	achment)
	Attachment
25X1			25X1
			25X1

Approved For Release 2007/03/21: CIA-RDP84B00274R000100070010-8

SECRET.